Weekend vs Weekday Transactions of Top 10 store

Summary of Key Insights

- Total profit year-to-date has reached approximately $1.05 million, with strong contributions from both weekday and weekend sales across stores.
- Last month's profit was $66.4K, reflecting a 4.2% decline compared to the previous month — indicating a need to review seasonal or promotional impacts.
- Store 13 led in profitability with over $101K, followed closely by Store 17 at $94K, making them top contributors to company-wide revenue.
- Weekend transactions accounted for nearly 30% of all store activity, with weekend profits being especially high in Store 13 and Store 17
- Customers with Gold member cards and those in the $30K–$90K income range delivered the highest profit margins, suggesting strong value from loyal, high-income segments.
- Returns remained under control overall, but Hermaons was identified as the most returned product brand, warranting a deeper quality or packaging review.
- The top-selling and most profitable product is Hermaons Green Pepper helping drive strong store performance and consistent margins.
- Demographic analysis showed that married homeowners with 1–2 children spent the most and had the lowest return rates, making them ideal targets for future campaigns.
- A slight month-on-month decline in profit over the last two periods signals potential slowdown — suggesting a timely need to evaluate promotions, pricing, or regional performance strategies.
